Farewell—

May the sweet balm

of

love's labor lost

not

upon the years of legion youth

add rich fragrance

to all your days.

May the wealth

happy memories

you have treasured

spend themselves

upon the fullest hours of your future years.

And

may all that

Goodness and Mercy

can provide fill up the rest.

Indeed,

farewell!

W.M.S.

Memories . . .

Memories, pressed between the pages of my mind. Memories, sweetened through the ages just like wine. Quiet thoughts come floating down and settle softly to the ground like golden autumn leaves around my feet.
I touch them and they burst apart with sweet memories. Of holding hands and red bouquets and twilight trimmed in purple haze and laughing eyes and simple ways and quiet nights and gentle days with you.

Memories, pressed between the pages of my mind. Memories sweetened through the ages just like wine. Memories Of holding hands and red bouquets and twilight trimmed in purple haze and laughing eyes and simple ways of quiet nights and gentle days with you.

Memories, pressed between the pages of my mind. Memories, sweetened through the ages just like wine. Memories. Sweet memories.

Over Yonder

Performance of "A-Feudin' Over Yonder" on Oct. 5, 1971 scored several firsts for a GHS play production:

First time in a long time that Garny drama fans had seen a hillbilly play performed.

First play performed "in the round" on the GHS stage.

First time that "12 miles west of Garnavillo" was used as a play setting.

First time that a major play was performed for the school audience in the afternoon and for the community audience in the evening. No admission charged either.

First acting roles for 18 Garny students: DeAnne Berns, Amy Mueller, Dan Scheppele, Mark Urlaub, Audrey Hempeler, Wendy Wahls, Tom Rowland, Lois Bauer, Mark Scheffert, Tom Schmelzer, Rick Allyn, Sandy Sutton, Sharon Doeppke, Martha Clefisch, Sandy Thein, Debbie Decker, Melody Roys, and Cathy Priem. (Only Ruth Thiese and Diane Possehl had previously acted in a play.)

First rate cooperation from our administrators.

First time a moron and a fat lady stole the show. (I refer to Willy Hornhonker and a Wedding Guest, played by Mark Scheffert and Sharon Doeppke.)

First time that Audrey Hempeler (Rosie Belle Fry) took a "bath"--in public, that is!
